Patronal Festival

Sunday 6th September 10.00am service Including presentation re our New Community Hall Refreshments after the service.
Please do your very best to attend.

Back to Church Sunday 27th September.

The service will be kept simple, we need to make sure that all who attend are made to feel welcome and comfortable

We need you all to think of someone you would like to invite along.

Maybe someone new to church life, or someone you know who has fallen by the wayside.

It is important that we pray about the people we could invite back to our church.

Invitation cards and publicity material are available at the back of church

Fundraising Lunch for our New Community Hall

During Heritage weekend on Saturday 12th September from 2.00 pm
Here at St Mary and St Margaret's Castle Bromwich Parish Church

We will be delving into the past to secure our future.

Follow the progress of our own "Time Team" archaeological dig, listen to our local historians, have a fascinating look around our remarkable church, find out its secrets!!

Climb our church tower and be amazed at the view.

Include a visit to our neighbours at "Castle Bromwich Hall Gardens".

Come and see for yourself the wealth of history on your doorstep.

Recessional Hymn Today

All Things Bright and Beautiful

"On Tuesday 1st September, it will be a year since my sister, Christine Fletcher, died very suddenly from an aggressive form of leukaemia.

As many of you might remember, our grandparents owned a chalet at Dunster beach in Somerset, where as children and adults, we spent all our holidays until it was sold in 2006.

This hymn was written by a

Mrs Cecil F. Alexander. She sat on a hill overlooking Dunster village (where my brother now lives), to where the English countryside meets the sandy beach and the Bristol Channel. We often had picnics in this very spot as children, so this hymn means a great deal to us and we have had it played at all our weddings, Christenings and funerals. So in memory of Chris..."

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

POST COMMUNION

God of all mercy,
in this Eucharist you have set aside our sins
and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

8.00 am Said Eucharist

10.00 am Parish Eucharist

Response to Psalm

“The just will live in the presence of the Lord”

We welcome children into our church, and want them to feel comfortable.

Bags with books and toys are provided for use in the pews on the right hand side of church Please put these items back into the bags at the end of the service.

A quiet area is also provided for the Children, but they should always be accompanied by an adult as it is intended for quiet play e.g. reading and colouring not a play area for children on their own.

Try to encourage your child to whisper, not shout, Difficult we know but with practice it can be done
